Dear Sir

While in Phil^a will You not see Mr Fox, and make a request of him in favor of my friend
 Miss Louisa Knox em=
 -ployed in the Mint
 there? On account of her delicate eyesight-
 she wishes to be moved from the Adjusting room to the Coining room; there is no difference in the compensation, and the request coming from you I know would be immediately granted

and you will therefore make somebody happy.
Do let me know if this will be done. So I can write to Miss Knox It will be such a pleasure for me to know that it is possible for me to contribute in ever so small a way to any body's happiness

Yours truly
Virginia I. M. Severick

Dear Sir

While in Phila. will you not see Mr. Fox, and make a request of him in favor of my friend Miss Louisa Knox employed in the Mint there? On account of her delicate eyesight she wishes to be moved from the Adjusting room to the Coining room; there is no difference in the Compensation, and the request coming from you I know would be immediately granted and you will herefore make somebody happy. Do let me know if this will be done so I can write to Miss Knox. It will be such a pleasure for me to know that it is possible for me to contribute in ever so small a way to any body's happiness.
